Table of Contents

		Page
Preface and Acknowledgements		iv
Foreword		vi
List of Acronyms		vii
Chapter 1	Introduction	1
Part I.	Strategic Approaches to Internationalization
Chapter 2	Internationalization of the Curriculum • Alan M. Rugman	13
	Comment on Rugman's Paper • Masao Nakamura	29
Chapter 3	Internationalizing the Faculty: Internationalizing Who is Teaching and Publishing • Rosalie L. Tung	31
Chapter 4	International Business as International Politics • Stephen J. Kobrin	41
Chapter 5	Economic Foundations of International Business • James A. Brander	59
Part II.	What is the Domain of International Business?
Chapter 6	The Field of International Business and JIBs' Role in It • David A. Ricks	77
Chapter 7	Role and Methods of Language Training Programs in Internationalizing Management Education • Jan W. Walls	85

Chapter 8 Regional Studies in International Business Education 101
- John C. Ries

Comment on Ries' Paper 119
- Masao Nakamura

Chapter 9 Methods for Learning Involved in Internationalizing Management Education: Experimenting with Silent Meetings, Microcultures and Microworlds 121
- Henry W. Lane

Chapter 10 The Internationalization of Management Textbooks: A Survey of the International Components of North American Management Textbooks and Support Materials 139
- June N.P. Francis and Steven Globerman

Part III. Internationalizing the Functional Disciplines

Chapter 11 The Teaching of International Finance 155
- Maurice D. Levi

Chapter 12 Internationalization of the Accounting Curriculum 167
- Lee Radebaugh

Chapter 13 International Operations Management 191
- David Rutenberg

Chapter 14 Teaching Global Marketing: The Executive Angle ... 205
- Johny K. Johansson and Michael R. Czinkota

Chapter 15 Human Resource Management 237
- Daniel Ondrack

Chapter 16 A World-class Company is One Whose Customers Cannot be Won Away by Competitors: Internationalizing Strategic Management 251
- Kathryn Rudie Harrigan

Part IV. Implementing Change: Administrative Issues of Internationalization

Chapter 17 Administrative Structures and Processes to Promote Internationalization 265
- Carolyne Smart, Terry Ursacki, Ilan Vertinsky and Donald Wehrung

Chapter 18 Internationalization of the Michigan Business School: A Letter From the Front 281
- Edwin L. Miller

Chapter 19 In Search of the Holy Grail: Reflections on the Internationalization of Business Education 301
- Richard M. Steers and Gerardo R. Ungson

Chapter 20 Managing the Internationalization of Management Education: Moving on Diverse Mutually Reinforcing Fronts Simultaneously 317
- Michael A. Goldberg

Chapter 21 Internationalizing Management Education: Experience in Australia 327
- Murray C. Frazer

Chapter 22 Role and Methods of Student Exchanges in Internationalizing Management Education 331
- Catherine Vertesi

Chapter 23 Island Programs: The UBC Experience With a Summer Program in France 345
- Michael W. Tretheway

Centre for International Business Studies 353